A page of Gregorian chant notation featuring four-line red staves. The music is written in neumatic notation, with each note represented by a vertical stem and a horizontal stroke indicating pitch and duration. The lyrics are written in Latin, with some words in French or Spanish. The text is divided into two columns by a vertical bar line. The first column contains the lyrics: "mnes * de Sa- ba vé-ni-", "ent, au- rum et thus de-fe-réntes, et laudem Dómino", and "annun- ti- ántes.". The second column contains "V. Surge," and "et illumi-ná- re Je-rú- sa-". The third column continues with "lem : qui a gló- ri- a Dó- mi- ni", and the fourth column concludes with "su- per te * or- ta est."
