

Resp. 2.  Lord, \* I have heard thy speech, and was afraid: I have consi- de- red thy works, and was sore confoun- ded.  $\Psi$ . Re- vive thy work in the midst of the years, O

Lord: yea, e- ven in the midst of the years let it be made known.  $\Psi$ . In the time of con- fu- sion of my soul: in wrath, remember me, O Lord, in thy mercy.  $\Psi$ . Our God came forth from Te- man, and his Holy One from the thick woods of the mountain.

$\Psi$ . His glo- ry co- ve-red the hea- vens: and the earth was full \* of his praise.
